

16

THE HISTORY OF THE REIGN OF KING CHARLES THE FIRST

And thus the king, being informed of the same, did not only not punish the offender, but also did not give any satisfaction to the people, who were much troubled at this his behaviour.

167

And thus the king, being informed of the same, did not only not punish the offender, but also did not give any satisfaction to the people, who were much troubled at this his behaviour.

168

And thus the king, being informed of the same, did not only not punish the offender, but also did not give any satisfaction to the people, who were much troubled at this his behaviour.

169

And thus the king, being informed of the same, did not only not punish the offender, but also did not give any satisfaction to the people, who were much troubled at this his behaviour.

170

And thus the king, being informed of the same, did not only not punish the offender, but also did not give any satisfaction to the people, who were much troubled at this his behaviour.

171

And thus the king, being informed of the same, did not only not punish the offender, but also did not give any satisfaction to the people, who were much troubled at this his behaviour.

172

And thus the king, being informed of the same, did not only not punish the offender, but also did not give any satisfaction to the people, who were much troubled at this his behaviour.

CHAPTER IV. OF THE REFORMATION IN THE CANTONS OF BASEL AND SCHWYZ.

153

THE REFORMATION IN THE CANTONS OF BASEL AND SCHWYZ. The Reformation in the cantons of Basel and Schwyz was not without its difficulties. The people were at first very much divided in their opinions. Some were in favor of the old religion, and some in favor of the new. The government was also divided. The council of Basel was divided into two parties, the old and the new. The council of Schwyz was also divided. The people of Basel were at first very much divided in their opinions. Some were in favor of the old religion, and some in favor of the new. The government was also divided. The council of Basel was divided into two parties, the old and the new. The council of Schwyz was also divided.

The people of Basel were at first very much divided in their opinions. Some were in favor of the old religion, and some in favor of the new. The government was also divided. The council of Basel was divided into two parties, the old and the new. The council of Schwyz was also divided.

SECTION I.

THE REFORMATION IN THE CANTON OF BASEL. The Reformation in the canton of Basel was not without its difficulties. The people were at first very much divided in their opinions. Some were in favor of the old religion, and some in favor of the new. The government was also divided. The council of Basel was divided into two parties, the old and the new. The council of Schwyz was also divided.

The people of Basel were at first very much divided in their opinions. Some were in favor of the old religion, and some in favor of the new. The government was also divided. The council of Basel was divided into two parties, the old and the new. The council of Schwyz was also divided.

The people of Basel were at first very much divided in their opinions. Some were in favor of the old religion, and some in favor of the new. The government was also divided. The council of Basel was divided into two parties, the old and the new. The council of Schwyz was also divided.

The people of Basel were at first very much divided in their opinions. Some were in favor of the old religion, and some in favor of the new. The government was also divided. The council of Basel was divided into two parties, the old and the new. The council of Schwyz was also divided.

the first of these was the fact that the Reformation had not yet reached the Swiss Confederation. The second was the fact that the Swiss Confederation was not yet a united body. The third was the fact that the Swiss Confederation was not yet a united body.

The first of these was the fact that the Reformation had not yet reached the Swiss Confederation. The second was the fact that the Swiss Confederation was not yet a united body. The third was the fact that the Swiss Confederation was not yet a united body.

The first of these was the fact that the Reformation had not yet reached the Swiss Confederation. The second was the fact that the Swiss Confederation was not yet a united body. The third was the fact that the Swiss Confederation was not yet a united body.

The first of these was the fact that the Reformation had not yet reached the Swiss Confederation. The second was the fact that the Swiss Confederation was not yet a united body. The third was the fact that the Swiss Confederation was not yet a united body.

The first of these was the fact that the Reformation had not yet reached the Swiss Confederation. The second was the fact that the Swiss Confederation was not yet a united body. The third was the fact that the Swiss Confederation was not yet a united body.

20

The Committee of the Board of Directors
of the United States Savings and Loan Association, Inc. has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter
dated 10/10/68, regarding the proposed acquisition of the
United States Savings and Loan Association, Inc. by the
United States Savings and Loan
Association, Inc. The Committee
has no objection to the proposed acquisition.

Board of Directors

21

The Committee of the Board of Directors
of the United States Savings and Loan Association, Inc. has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter
dated 10/10/68, regarding the
proposed acquisition of the
United States Savings and Loan
Association, Inc. by the
United States Savings and Loan
Association, Inc. The Committee
has no objection to the
proposed acquisition.

Committee of the Board of Directors

22

The Committee of the Board of Directors
of the United States Savings and Loan Association, Inc. has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter
dated 10/10/68, regarding the
proposed acquisition of the
United States Savings and Loan
Association, Inc. by the
United States Savings and Loan
Association, Inc. The Committee
has no objection to the
proposed acquisition.

23

The Committee of the Board of Directors
of the United States Savings and Loan Association, Inc. has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter
dated 10/10/68, regarding the
proposed acquisition of the
United States Savings and Loan
Association, Inc. by the
United States Savings and Loan
Association, Inc. The Committee
has no objection to the
proposed acquisition.

• (2)

The Committee of the Board of Directors
of the United States Savings and Loan Association, Inc. has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter
dated 10/10/68, regarding the
proposed acquisition of the
United States Savings and Loan
Association, Inc. by the
United States Savings and Loan
Association, Inc. The Committee
has no objection to the
proposed acquisition.